Background

Consumer Report/Investigative Consumer Disclosure Statement

Backgrounds Online will have background checks performed on each Applicant. Our customer requires that we ensure that such checks have been made on all individuals with access to customers. You must ensure that your employees or subcontractors are checked as well. These checks are treated by the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) as Consumer Reports and / or Investigative Consumer Reports, which are governed by the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA). Under the FCRA and the FTC's rules your authorization is required for our company to obtain these reports. By providing your signature to the authorization below you acknowledge that FGO LOGISTICS may require such reports in connection with your application for consideration as a Contract Carrier, and you authorize to secure such reports as needed, as determined by the company. You also acknowledge that you have received and read the summary of your rights under the FCRA.
